

'I love the spending each day with the children and staff at St Mary's. They make my job interesting and fun every day. I love the laughter everyone brings to the day whilst taking our job very seriously.'

Mr Jones
Started St Mary's - 2015

Guilty Pleasure:
Walnut whips, Seafood
Gigondas/Châteauneuf-du-Pape
Random Fact:
When I was little I used to own golden and silver pheasants, guinea fowl, geese, hens and ferrets.

Mr Jones left Ashington High School and read Geology at the University of Derby and he then received his PGCE at the same university. Whilst teaching he gained his NPQH and then a SEN qualification at University of Cumbria. Before teaching Mr Jones was a Youth worker and Drugs Education Specialist.

I love good wine and food, gardening, foreign films, being outdoors. I shuffle (jog and occasionally run) when I can.

Two royal crests are visible on the paper. The one on the left is the coat of arms of the University of Derby, featuring a shield with a book and a lamp, supported by a lion and a unicorn, with a crest above showing a figure holding a staff. The one on the right is the coat of arms of the University of Cumbria, featuring a shield with a cross and four quadrants, supported by a lion and a unicorn, with a crest above showing a figure holding a staff.
