

'I love the children at St Mary's, who are enthusiastic and cheerful, making every day different and exciting. I also love the staff at St Mary's, many of whom have become great friends, as we all work hard to make learning fun and support each other.'

Mrs Day

B.A. (Hons) P.G.C.E.

Started St Mary's - 2007

guilty pleasure:

Maltesers, a cheesy gossip magazine and a glass of wine!

Random Fact:

I once played a little orphan boy in a production of 'Oliver!'

Mrs Day studied Art History at Leicester University and then received her PGCE from Charlotte Mason College of Education

'I love going to the cinema, books, garden centres (coffee and cakes) and the Promenade at Morecambe.'
