Newsletter #13 - Autumn Term

Dear Parents,

I have been so impressed with the positive approach that the children have shown as we have started this term. I cannot underestimate that a good start to the term can have a huge impact on the attitudes to learning for the rest of the year/term. As a result, with very little disruption, the children have settled into learning and the routines very well. We do expect the virus to have an impact again but we wait to see how and when the virus manifests itself in the community.

It is a delight to welcome our new starters this term and we hope the first few days have been settled. For new parents, please do keep in touch with class teachers if you need clarification about anything.

We are now encouraging the children to sustain the normal routines now such as, reading for pleasure each day, Doodle maths 10 mins per day, regularly learning weekly spellings or new phonics sounds and other regular homework set by teachers. It has been lovely to hear about the various new books children have received at Christmas, which has motivated the children to explore new and exciting good reads.

I am very pleased that we have managed to complete the new roof, despite the weather challenges of the autumn term. It feels strangely odd without scaffolding around the school but we are pleased to return to normal. Thank you for your understanding during this period of investment in our school roof.

Primary Cross Country Trials

Next Wednesday, Casterton School (Sedbergh Prep) will be hosting the area cross country trials. Pupils who have qualified and been chosen, will receive details for attendance at this event. Upper Junior children will have the potential to qualify for the county level event. Year 3 and 4 are always invited to compete in the run and enable them to be ready for future years.
